

Volunteer Information Sheet

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with Sagal Radio Services! Sagal Radio is operated entirely by volunteers who are committed to providing news, education, information and entertainment to former east African people now living in the Atlanta area. As a non-commercial radio program we depend on community and business underwriting, contributions, and volunteer staff to keep us operating. We appreciate your willingness to join this volunteer team and help however you can. Please provide the following information in order to help us stay in touch with you and best utilize your volunteer efforts.
